

'Three days Pilot Study Workshop on Induction Module'

Three days workshop on Induction Module was organized in DIET Mangalore in collaboration with PADI as well DIET Udupi. The workshop was organized in DIET Mangalore from 3rd to 5th April 2018. A pilot study was done on Induction module prepared by PADI with the support of DIET Mangalore. The workshop inaugurated by DIET principal and by the Executive Director of PADI. Mr. Chandrashekar, Documentation coordinator of PADI welcomed everyone and opened up for the first session.

The following were the Resource persons came to this workshop.

- On the First Day Mr. Jai Kishan, Faculty and Trainer in Western Technology Udupi had a very open up and creative sessions on the subject Personality Development and Leadership. Students experienced a playful and joyful with the strong message on Personality Development as well as played videos of a motivational leadership for the students to inspire.
- In a second half session Mr. Renni D Souza, Executive Director of PADI, Created a dynamic session on Communication skills. He brought many creative games to come out with their fear in communication.

- On the Second day Mr. K K Pejavara, Retired teacher, who had won was awarded best teacher was the resource person on Skills and qualities inherited to be a good teacher. Mr. Pejavara delighted and motivated students with his vast experience in his teaching field and he demonstrated his invention of Microscope with his creative ideas and it had helped many to buy for cheaper price. Educators had a meaningful session with his humorous and insightful session.

- Mrs.Chandraprabha, Senior Lecturer, DIET Mangalore had her valuable session in the afternoon on Human Resource and Administration of DIET and state level. Students experienced the department roles and how it functions.
- Mr. Swamy K A, Principal, SDM, D.El.Ed college, had a knowledgeable session on Teachers duty and responsibilities. Students were awakened by his session on duties and responsibilities of a teacher.
- In the second half Mrs Sumangala. Senior Lecturer, DIET Mangalore did a valuable session on opportunities that are available to teachers. Students were very thrilled to know all the inputs that are shared, students felt amazed of all the information's.

-
- On the final day on a first session Mr. Swamy KA, Lecturer gave a session on Values of the teachers and service. He brought with many examples of teachers who were role models on their values and students had a inspiring session.

- Mr. Renni D Souza, Executive Director of PADI gave a session on RTE Act and Curriculum. The D.El.Ed practitioners had an insightful session.

The three day workshop concluded with students and lecturer's critical opinion in the presence of DIET Principal My Cyprian Monteiro. Where they expressed students had a joyful and lively sessions and knowledge. And it was suggested more of activity oriented with many other topics. Mr. Steevan, Advocacy coordinator thanked everyone for all the active support.